When you choose steel conduit, you choose a wiring solution that supports sustainability efforts. In fact, 51% of all materials recycled in North America are steel. That’s more than all other materials combined!

As buildings change and expand over time, other wiring solutions have to be removed and reinstalled — but steel conduit can be reused again and again. It might cost more upfront, but steel conduit delivers significant savings over time!

LEARN MORE AT STEELTUBEINSTITUTE.ORG